Girls'

Our season was one of many ups and downs. We played our best throughout the season and put in a lot of time and hard work. Though some of our goals were not reached, we are still satisfied with the ability at which we played and the effort we put forth.

Our season's end is one that will not be easily forgotten, but when we look past the pain and disappointment and into the season as a whole, no one can be anything but proud of the way we played and the foundation left behind for future teams to build on.

Baseball

Our Warrior baseball team had a good year, making its first playoff appearance since 1981. The Warriors went to the playoffs against Willamina and lost, 4-2. Coach Keene Forney said, "We gave them a game, though. I was real proud of the kids." The team's overall record was a good 15-10 for the season.

The following awards were given at the end of the season: Most Improved, Glenn Taggart; Captain, Mike Davis; Most Inspirational, Ricky Corkill and Most Valuable, Larry Jones.

Student Council Leads School

The W.H.S. Student Council began in a state of disarray, having a new principal and a new advisor. We finally pulled together to work as a team.

The events we hosted always turned out well, and we were able to pull them off with success. Homecoming and the senior citizens of Warrenton visiting our school were our best events. Our blood drive in January was also successful.

The Council's goals were to make the school a better place for learning and to increase student spirit. Theo Kohlasch, President

- A. Council members listen carefully during a meeting.
- B. Student Body Officers: President, Theo Kohlasch, sitting. Standing: Brian Johnson, Parliamentarian; Jennie Morisse, Vice President; Tammi Cowger, Secretary; Anh Linh Le, Ass't Treasurer; Patti Barnard, Treasurer, and Tony Bogh, Sgt-at-Arms.

- E. Blood Drive volunteers included: Seated: Anh Linh Le and Jaime Paglia. Standing: Patti Barnard, Tracy Brown, and Tony Bogh.

Honor Society Adds Members

The National Honor Society at Warrenton High has had a very successful year fund raising and pulling together as a group. I am proud of each person in this year's club and hope that each new member installed in future years will carry on this pride, reflecting it not only through themselves but through the school they attend and the community in which they live.

Scholarship. Service. Leadership, and Character should not only be the criteria of Honor Society members but of every student who attends Warrenton High.

Tracy Brown, President

A. Honor Society officers: Jaime Paglia, Vice President; David Seimi, Historian; Tracy Brown, President; Renee Hanson, Secretary; Terri Haskins, Treasurer.

E. Newcomers await their installation into the Honor Society on December 9, 1984.

Journalism And Yearbook Staff

The Journalism staff accomplished many things this year. They consistently put out our paper, the Sachem Chief. They also produced the special Senior edition of the paper.

Under the direction of Miss Gretchen DeWilde, the Journalism staff undertook the task of producing the yearbook.

Most of the staff members were rookies to both classes, yet a great time was had by all.

Renee Hanson

S.A.D.D.

A S.A.D.D. chapter (Students Against Driving Drunk) was started this year at Warrenton. The club invited Oregon State patrolman, Walt Wagner, to come and give a presentation to the whole student body.

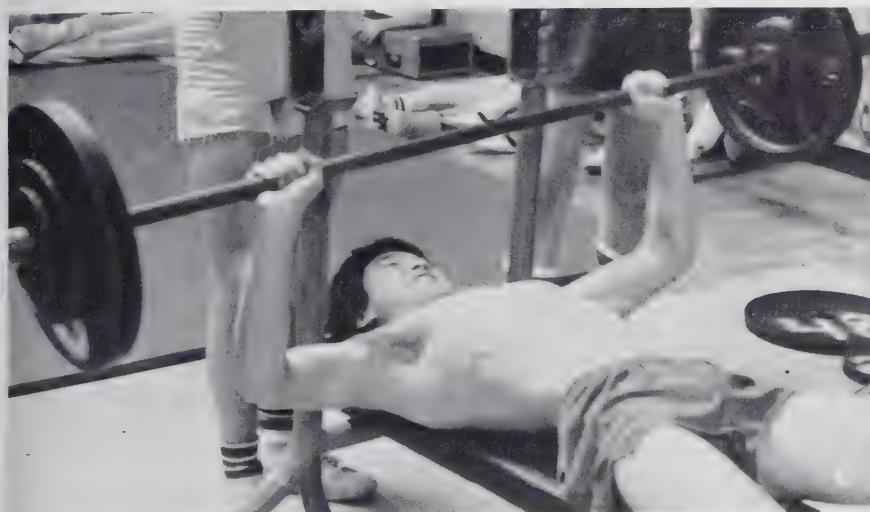

The club's first president was Jolie West. The other officers were: Tracy Brown, Vice President; Patti Barnard, Secretary; and Tammy Cowger, Treasurer.

The purpose of S.A.D.D. is not to eliminate the drinking itself, but to eliminate the act of driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Jolie West

Lifters

The weightlifters met after school to work out. In a statewide bench press competition, Warrenton placed in a tie for third place.

Gary Leer won the 148 pound class with a lift of 280 lbs. and was named Most Outstanding Male Lifter. Other placers were, second: Randy Sampson, 225; Teresa Bement, 110; Mike Moore, 260. Lloyd Giddings, 260, and Chuck Thomas, 215, placed fourth.

Choir

The choir class this year was a new experience for many. They enjoyed such things as singing at the Astoria Country Club, various rest homes, and in the musical. The class was offered this year for the first time in a while. We all had fun, and Mr. Angelo Mauceri, our director, hopes the choir will grow even bigger and better next year.

Karen Cashion

- A Monique Bassett, Cheryl Marsh, Rob Landis, Kim Kaal, and Theo Kohlasch sing "Mr. Postman."
- B The original members of the choir sounded as good as they looked as they performed "For Women Only" at the Open House in fall.
- C Paul Rummell, Theo Kohlasch, Rob Landis, and Renea Spring work on another one of their musical numbers.
- D Pauline Laterniere, Morina Scully, Linda Campbell, Melody Connor, and Tina Long belt out another hit.

Band

This year band was full of learning experiences and fun was had by all. We won't forget the "Boys in the Back Row" and their escapades. Remember all those crazy basketball game gigs! Fun in the snow was another high point of the year, even though Mr. Mauceri claimed, "This is snow fun!"

We enjoyed the serious notes, too, the dramatic symphonies as well as the "bluesy" jazz charts, and Monica's "happy songs." I think a special thank you should be given to Mr. Mauceri for stepping in and doing such a great job.

Chris Gramson

- B. Maddie Bernal and Amy Steve play their instruments while Teddy Bear listens.
- C. Mark Kujala practices his horn.
- D. Band members looked good and sounded great at their first performance of the year, Parent Teacher Night.

Drama

The Drama Class was quite busy this year, doing homework, memorizing lines, making speeches, learning how to turn, etc. The class presented two excellent plays. One, put on during the Christmas season, was a children's spoof. The other was during Spring. It was absolutely "The Worst High School Play in the World!" Scenes from this play are pictured on these two pages.

Many fun times as well as the hard times will be remembered by all who participated in our class. Thank you Ms. Hart!
